The Story that Started with a ₹2 Coffee Sachet

Back in 2017, two college friends from IHM Aurangabad, Rishabh & Abhishek were on a road trip through Punjab. Somewhere between Ludhiana and Jalandhar, caffeine cravings hit hard. There weren't any fancy cafés around, just a few roadside stalls. So, they stopped at one where a kind lady smiled and said, “Coffee toh nahi hai, par bana deti hoon.”

Out came those little ₹2 coffee sachets hanging next to shampoo packets. She frothed the coffee with a ladle, poured it with love, and served it like it was the best thing in the world. And honestly, it was.

That small gesture, so full of warmth, simplicity, and Indian hospitality stayed with us. Years later, in early 2025, while reminiscing about college days, we decided to build something around that memory. Something that felt like home. Something that celebrated kindness, nostalgia, and good coffee. That's how Gulabo & Co. was born, named after the lady who made us that unforgettable cup.

Here, every corner tells a story - the jars on our counter, the Indian accompaniments with our beverages, the quirky animals on our T-shirts. And our 'Kindness Shelf' where you'll find Parle-G packets for anyone who wishes to share something sweet with someone in need.

You'll notice there's no pink here, no 'gulabi' theme. Our colors are deep blue, mustard yellow, off-white, and purple because Gulabo, for us, was never about a color. It was about a feeling. A feeling that warmth still exists in the simplest things like a ₹2 coffee, shared smiles and stories that stay with you forever.
